Bar jokes

Three micronationalists walk into a bar. They get kicked out for being underage.

A micronationalist walks into a bar and orders a drink. The bartender asks, "Cash or card?" The micronationalist hands over a shoebox filled with hand-drawn banknotes, after which he is promptly kicked off the premises.

A micronationalist walks into a bar and downs nine shots of vodka before grabbing his car keys. The bartender asks, "You're not driving, are you?" The micronationalist giggles and says "If drinking and driving is illegal, why does the bar have a parking lot!" before getting into his car. That micronationalist was me, ha!

A secessionist walks into a bar. Ouch!

A micronationalist walks into a bar. "Sir, you are clearly underage," says the bartender. "I must therefore kindly ask you to leave." The micronationalist quickly responds, "hold on, I have ID" and pulls out a card. The bartender takes one glimpse at it, sighs, and shakes his head. "Sir, the Capitalist Neo-Soviet Duchy of New Prussia is not a real country."

Two micronationalists walk into a bar. They declare war on each other before even ordering anything.

"The Great Micronational World War I"

By Jess Nayyar

BREAKING NEWS: Hundreds of Discord nations are involved in a microwar that began in the early hours of 1 November 2024. The war began when the New Prussian Soviet Socialist Republic declared war on New Germany over a territorial dispute: both micronations lay claim to Bir Tawil.

The edit history for the New Germany MicroWiki entry shows that it claimed the terra nullius (unclaimed) region between Egypt and Sudan since as early as 7 August 2024. However, the New Prussian Soviet Socialist Republic (then called the Democratic People's Republic of New Prussia) cited a post they made to the r/micronations subreddit forum two weeks earlier listing their territorial claimants which included Bir Tawil alongside the entirety of Antarctica and six households, a school, a private gymnasium and two parks in Worcestershire, England.

As such, the President of the New Prussian Soviet Socialist Republic, Adam C. Blackbourne, asserted that they rightfully own the region and declared the now infamous state of war. The New German Prime Minister and Minister of Defence, u/RodNod282 on Reddit, responded the following day by claiming that they had previously sent a message on their now-deleted national Discord server stating that they had laid claim to Bir Tawil "two sundays [sic] beforw [sic] new orussia [sic]" made their claim.

After their intelligence received this news 36 hours later, the Free New Prussian Marxist Republic (formerly the New Prussian Socialist Republic; name changed during writing) raided their subreddit, r/NewGermanyMirconation, and their national Discord server with some 20 users. In retaliation, two of New Germany's allies, Arcadia and the Rhodesian Emirate – all three members of the Union of Micronations (UoM) – raided the Free New Prussian Marxist Republic's server the following Wednesday by using an army of bots, effectively nuking it.

A week followed of little activity within the conflict until the Second Free New Prussian Marxist Republic asked the United Micronations (UM) for help, of which they are a member state. However, the Chairman, batman6464 of the Arstotzkan Communist Micro-Republic, noted that the Second Free New Prussian Marxist Republic had joined six days after declaring war. Thus, he argued that, because of this, the UM would not have to defend them against New Germany and their allies.

While the Timmystan Soviet Socialist Republic, Nirland and the Republic of Atlantis agreed, two micronations, namely the Kingdom of New Finland and Nova Arstotzka, argued that they should help a fellow member state: "ik [I know] for a facts [sic] thay [sic] would have dpne [sic] the same for me or u [you]" they posted during a confidential quorum session.

The next Tuesday, a rogue nation supporting New Germany joined the UM's server and nuked it, spamming all of the channels and causing great inconvenience. He did this when the only user with administrative permissions, Johann II Rodriguez of the People's Socialist Republic of California, was offline due to being in detention at school.

Six hours later, an urgent meeting was called: the Timmystan Soviet Socialist Republic, the Republic of Atlantis and even the Arstotzkan Communist Micro-Republic had changed their minds. They agreed to support the Free New Prussian Marxist Republic in their war against the UoM; war was formally declared that Friday.

That second afternoon, UoM had a word war over this and decided on a preemptive propaganda campaign, mass-posting anti-UM posters on r/micronations, several national Discord servers and on Twitter. One stray poster even made it as far as MicroWiki. This campaign was lead chiefly, not by New Germany, but by Arcadia, the Third Rhodesian Emirate (formerly the Rhodesian Emirate) and the Catholic Republic of Holland.

Two UoM members, the Monarchist Republic of New Germany (not to be confused with New Germany) and the Fascist Kingdom of Peterville, used nuke bots to nuke the national Discord servers of UM members Draxgonland and the Timmystan Soviet Socialist Republic, respectively. Draxgonland responded by doxxing the leader of the Monarchist Republic of New Germany, Corey Jackson Blaine Powell of 1751 Heppensdale Place, Beverly Hills, CA 03410969, which resulted in the leader of Draxgonland's Discord account being terminated. The Fascist Kingdom of Peterville accused the Discord staff of supporting the Free New Prussian Marxist Republic and declared war on Discord.

In retaliation to these early attacks, several micronations, such as Nova Arstotzka, the Republic of Chasdonia and the People's Liberated Republic of Korea, launched several raids against UoM member states, including on their Discord servers, subreddits and Twitter chatrooms, greatly devastating them. Two Discord servers, those of the Catholic Republic of Holland and the Third Caliphate of Neues Mosleyland, had to be abandoned entirely.

Two days later, the Kingdom of New Finland and the Antarctican State of Discordia submitted a joint claim to the Intermicronational Court of Law, owned by the League of Micronations, to mediate the conflict. However, Arcadia and New Germany accused them of attempting to bribe the supreme judge, Kazymor of New Russia, by offering him adminship on the Free New Prussian Marxist Republic's national Discord server of 230+ members.

On Tuesday, a dossier hosted on Google Docs was published by the Republic of Chasdonia and Nova Arstotzka accusing the rogue nation that supported New Germany and nuked the UM's server in the beginning of actually being an alt account by New Germany themselves. The dossier asserted that New Germany purposefully did so just to have the justification for their state of war and to entice the UM to join and support them!

In protest, the Fourth Rhodesian Emirate (formerly the Third Rhodesian Emirate), Torentzdensu and Hitlerland left the UoM, but Arcadia and several others defended New Germany and accused the Republic of Chasdonia and Nova Arstotzka of lying about New Germany for unknown reasons.

With no end to the conflict in sight, it looks like this will go down in microhistory as the actual, first-ever, Micronational World War.
